

JOURNAL of OCCULT STUDIES

An Interdisciplinary Approach to Paranormal Phenomena

VOLUME ONE

May

NUMBER ONE

Editor

Howard Smukler

Administrative Editor

Marc Seifer

Research Assistant

Maureen Sullivan

Copy Reviewer

Sara O'Brien

Computer Advisor

Dan Geary

Technical Consultant

Henry Bromberg

The Journal of Occult Studies is the official publication of the Occult Studies Program and is published four times a year by the University of Rhode Island Extension Press. Subscriptions are $7.50 a year, $6 for students, $2.50 a copy. All subscriptions begin with number one of the current volume.

All correspondence concerning manuscripts, subscriptions and book reviews should be addressed to Marc Seifer, Box 32, Kingston, Rhode Island 02881. Letters to the editor and personal inquiries should be addressed to Howard Smukler, P.O. Box 6581, Providence, Rhode Island 02940.

Responsibility for material published within the Journal of Occult Studies rest solely with the contributor and does not represent the opinion of the University of Rhode Island Extension.

Copyright © 1977 Journal of Occult Studies

Occult Studies Program

Dean of the Extension: Dr. George Dillavou

Director of Community Services: Dr. Hollis Farnum

Coordinator of O.S.P.: Howard Smukler

Staff:

Marc Seifer - Parapsychology, Graphology

Robert Perry - Techniques of Meditation and Healing

Georgina Stackpole - Yoga

Janice Carter - Astrology

Steffan Aletti - Supernatural Literature

Faye Ringle - Supernatural in New England

Mark Keller - Flying Saucers and Ancient Mysteries

The Journal of Occult Studies is an affiliated publication of the Occult Studies Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to the pursuit of scientific information in the field of the paranormal and the occult. Costs of publication and research have been provided by grants from both the University of Rhode Island Extension and the Occult Studies Foundation.